HISTORY OF THE GILBERT FAMILY OF MARYLAND,
VIRGINIA, KENTUCKY et al.

Compiled by Mary F. Price.

" . . . to bring together the records of the past and to house them in buildings where they will be preserved for the use of men living in the future, a nation must believe in the past. It must believe in the future. It must, above all, believe in the capacity of the people so to learn from the past that they can gain in judgment for the creation of the future".

The name was formerly spelled "Gilbeart", "Guilbert", "Gilbart"- and means "Pledge or Hostage". It is of French origin, being one of the commonest French names. If, as believed, our family came from England, then our family is of Anglo-Norman descent. In France they began the use of Surnames about the year 1000. We do not know how this name originated, but it was probably the Christian name of one of the early members of the family. Nor do we know when they left France. They may have gone to England with William the Conqueror, as we know some of the name did, or they may have been among the Huguenots who left France and went to Holland and Ireland. Later research may answer this question.

The first Gilbert to come to America was Sir Humphrey Gilbert, a half brother of Sir Walter Raleigh, who was also interested in America. Sir Humphrey did not remain in America, but he did make an effort to return, but was lost in a storm at sea. His sons, John and Raleigh, also had interests in America, and Raleigh came to America. However, on the death of his brother, John, leaving no heirs, Raleigh returned to England to settle the estate and take over the lands. He did not return, but he did have two brothers who were also in America in those early days. Bartholomew was killed as a young man while making his own discoveries, and we, as yet, have no account of what happened to Adrian.

The first of the name to be recorded in Virginia after this was in 1635, and there were a number of the name after that date. There was also a family in New England of this name, some of them bearing the same Christian names as members of our family, and one in North Carolina and one in Georgia, at early dates.

We find our Samuel Gilbert in Bedford County, Virginia, in 1758, along with Daniel, Aquilla and Benjamin, and there was a Thomas, an Ensign, whose connection with the family we do not yet know. It is noted that Samuel, Aquilla, Daniel and Benjamin were all Sergeants in the Bedford Militia in 1758, and Samuel, Jr., was also a member (Va. Col. Militia- by Crozier). We have had quite a search to discover where Samuel was prior to this, but now (1946) we have found him in Baltimore County, Maryland. We had our first knowledge of his residence in Baltimore County through receipt of copy of a deed, which is later incorporated in this record, and which shows that Samuel and Martha were living in Baltimore County in 1756. The Bedford County records also show a Charles Gilbert residing there. Copies of records which follow show our descent from Gervais Gilbert, of Baltimore County, Maryland.

Family tradition on one branch of our family says we are descended from Sir Humphrey Gilbert, but research has not verified this. In fact, it has disproved it. However, Sir Humphrey's line back in the thirteenth century had as its head one Thomas Gilbert, and later generations continued the use of this name, as well as that of William, both names in our family, and it may be that we do tie on somewhere back there.

Another tradition is that Charles Gilbert was the first of our ancestry in this country, and that he was the father of Gervais (Garvis, Jarvis etc.) and that Charles was a cousin of Sir Humphrey. Further research may prove whether this is true.

Another tradition is that we are descended from one William Gilbert, a famous scientist of England-"and it was he who figured out magnetism"- and his son, or grandson, Benjamin, was sent as a political prisoner by King George to Georgia, which was then, in 1733, under the authority of James Oglethorpe. It was then that the State of Georgia was founded as an English penal colony. This story was handed down through the family of Benjamin Gilbert, who did go to Georgia about 1784 from Campbell County (formerly Bedford County,) Virginia. This tradition says that the Benjamin who was sent to Georgia was our Benjamin. The story may be true, but not with reference to our Benjamin Gilbert, as we have now traced him back to Campbell and Bedford Counties, Virginia, and then to Baltimore County, Maryland, at dates which preclude the idea of his being the romantic Benjamin of this story. There was a Gilbert family in Georgia, and also one in North Carolina, at very early dates, of whose ancestry we know nothing.

Our research in Baltimore County, Maryland, disclosed that in 1695 a grant of land was made to one Thomas Gilbert, who, in 1703, married Hannah Ashford. It is assumed that this was not his first marriage, and, although his will does not mention the names of any of his children except Thomas and Michael, it does indicate he had other children. The Genealogist who made this research for us stated it as his belief that Thomas was previously married and that Gervais was one of his children by that marriage. The records which we have seem to indicate a family connection, but we do not know what this connection is. After the death of Thomas, in 1713, his widow, Hannah Gilbert, married Thomas Gash. This name, Gash, also appears in those early records of Bedford County. There was a Michael Gash who married Elizabeth, and they gave their consent to the marriage of their son, Thomas, to Elizabeth Gilbert in 1763 in Bedford County. This Michael must have been the son of Hannah and Thomas Gash. Then, later on, James Gilbert, a son of John Webster Gilbert, and his wife, Rebecca, married Martha Gash, a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Gilbert Gash. Records in Mercer County, Kentucky, show this relationship. Thomas Gilbert and Gervais may have been brothers, or Thomas may have been an uncle, but we have been unable to find them before they appeared in the Baltimore County records in 1695, and, therefore, we have no proof or verification of any relationship. They lived in the same community in Maryland, and some of them went to Bedford County, Virginia with the family of Gervais.

We have also been informed, by a member of the Haythe family of Campbell County, Virginia, that Bedford County was settled by people from North Ireland. The Haythe family is connected with the Gilberts through the marriage of Martha, daughter of Benjamin Gilbert, to Thomas Hayth. The name, it is said, was formerly "Heath" but became "Haythe" through the Irish pronunciation of the former name. The Heaths or Haythes first went to Northumberland County, Virginia, and then to Bedford County. This leads to the belief that our Gilberts were drawn to Bedford County because of its Irish settlement, and if so, our ancestors may have been among the early immigrants from Ireland.

We have also secured information about our Webster ancestors which is very interesting. These records were furnished by Mr. Wm. Marye, of Baltimore, who was employed to make the search, and bring us very close to our immigrant ancestor on both the Gilbert and Webster branches, and when we discover who they were our search must be continued in England.

These Baltimore records indicate that the Websters were Quakers. There is a record which shows that Gervais Gilbert was a vestryman in St. George's Church, and the Gilbert records which follow, many of them, were taken from the Register of that church. This was the first church in this part of the Province and was called "Spesutia Church," built in 1671. It is near the village of Perryman, Harford County, Maryland, and Gervais Gilbert, our ancestor, was a vestrymen 1724-1725.

Present St. George's was built in 1851 at Perryman, and is the third church on this spot, and the fourth one of the parish. The first church was built on "Walston's Addition near Delf Creek, in what is now Harford County.

Before giving the Gilbert records we will give the Webster information we have:

Our Webster ancestry is as follows:

1. John Webster m , and died in 1753
2. John Webster, Jr., m Mary - -
3. Martha Webster m Samuel Gilbert.

After the death of his first wife, Mary, John Webster, Jr., married Mary MacDaniel, and it was she who probably reared Martha. Martha was born Aug. 15, 1714, and her father remarried in February, 1715. Martha was just past five when her father died in 1720. Of course it is possible she may have been reared by her grand-father, who did not die until 1753. However, John, Jr. had a son, John, by his second wife, and she may have kept both children.

"The Webster progenitor, who died at a great age, was a much respected man, a considerable land owner, but he was a Quaker and did not hold office".

Maryland Gazette, Annapolis, April 12, 1753- "died last Friday in Baltimore County, aged 91 years, Mr. John Webster who was born on Kent Island, and lived all his life in this province. Among other virtues, he enjoyed that of Temperance, which doubtless contributed to his longevity. He lived to see 108 of his posterity, 22 of which died before him. He always maintained a good character in every station, was a tender Husband, kind parent and indulgent master. All his neighbors agree that he has not left an honest man."

Note the different ways of spelling the name "Gervais". His son spelled it "Jarvis" and it came down through several generations with that spelling.

Michael Gilbert was evidently provided for before his father died, as he is not mentioned in the will except as executor, and as such, he releases certain lands to the other children as willed by their father. There is a deed of 145 acres in "Hall's Pipe" and certain other tracts, from Gervais to Michael.

Samuel Gilbert witnessed the will of Isaac Butterworth dated 1.14.1746, of Baltimore County. Butterworth owned part of "Uncle's Good Will", and bequeathed part of it to "Elizabeth, wife of Aquilla Gilbert".

Preston's History of Harford County (Judge Walter W. Preston, 1901) on page 158, states that Jarvis (Gervais) Gilbert was a vestryman of St. George's Church (Spesutia) in 1724 and 1725.

Robert Hawkins of Baltimore County, in his will, May 13, 1761, mentions his daughter, Elizabeth Gilbert. She was the wife of Charles Gilbert, son of Gervais.

Based on the records given, it is quite certain that Samuel Gilbert's father was Gervais. We are not sure about Thomas, but as he was not married to Hannah until 1703, and three of his children are named, two sons, and his daughter Elizabeth, the boys in the will and Elizabeth in the birth records, and he leaves property "to all my children", it would appear that there were other children. As he died in 1713 he could not have had a very large family by Hannah, and it may be that these three were all the children by this marriage. If so, then he must have been previously married. He was probably the "Thomas Gilbert" who married Sarah Bedford, had twins by her, and lost the wife and twins in less than a year. If he was, then he may have been married even before his marriage to Sarah, and by this first marriage he could have been the father of Gervais. By his will we know that he was the "Thomas" to whom 150 acres was deeded in 1695. If he was "Thomas, Junr." then his father was also "Thomas", and it may be his parents were Thomas and Elizabeth, who are on the early settlers list and who came from England in 1671 to Maryland. However, this does not agree with the tradition among the Maryland Gilberts today, who say that our ancestor, the father, of Gervais, was named "Charles". Thomas could have been a brother to Gervais, or an uncle. Then there was Elizabeth Gilbert, who married John Kembal, Jr., April 10th, 1703, and John Gilbert, who married Rebecca and had Anthony May 19th, 1723, and Rachel, who married Arthur Macurahon June 29th, 1726. They could have been brothers and sisters of Thomas and Gervais, and all of them children of Thomas and Elizabeth. There is no record to show who they were, but they all have family names, and, are most surely, family connections.

If we were making a Bible record of our family then, it would be as follows:

GERVAIS GILBERT married (1), Margaret, and had the following children:

- I. Michael, b. June 15th, 1707
- II. Jarvis, b. Oct. 6, 1708
- III. Solomon, b. May 22, 1709
- IV. Samuel
- V. Jarvis (second) b. Nov. 20, 1713.

Then Margaret died January 16th, 1715. She may have died in child birth and there was another child after Jarvis, but the records do not show this.

GERVAIS then married (2) Mary --, and had:

- VI. Charles, b. Sept. 29, 1717, d. 3.25.1720
- VII. Mary, b. Dec. 14, 1719, d. May 20, 1720
- VIII. Hannah, b. Oct. 28, 1721
- IX. Charles (second) b. 1723
- X. Aquilla, b. Feb. 23, 1727
- XI. Benjamin, b. Jan. 14, 1729
- XII. Daniel
- XIII. Mary, b. Jan. 29, 1733
- XIV. Martha, b. Aug. 8, 1737
- XV. Arabelle, b. Feb. 13, 1739-40. (after her father's death).

Gervais died June 6, 1739. Ten of his children survived him and are named in his will. Arabelle may have also survived. We have no record of the death of the second wife, nor do we have the maiden name of either wife.

Following are listed the children, by both wives, with their descendants, as we have been able to find records. The records cited were found in Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri, and some from Texas. We have tried to follow these Gilberts of ours wherever they went, and they have spread out considerably. Descendants have been very kind to send their own family records to help make this history complete.

The data concerning Micah Gilbert, son of Michael, is largely copied from the old family Bible, which has since been destroyed in a fire which destroyed the home.

The history of Michael, oldest son of Gervais Gilbert, by his wife, Margaret, has been compiled from information furnished by Mrs. Robert Wesley Phelps, (Mary Gilbert) of Forest Hill, Maryland, W.L. Barnes, of Bel Air, Maryland, William W. Finney, R.D. No. 1, Aberdeen, Maryland, and Mrs. May Reese Rogers, 5608 Stonington Avenue, Baltimore 7, Maryland, together with the 1776 census of Baltimore County. This also applies to the information concerning Charles Gilbert, son of Gervais and Mary, who also remained in Maryland. Mrs. Rogers is the mother-in-law of Major John Poteet, Jr., of the U.S. Army, a descendant of Michael.

The information which follows, concerning the children of Gervais and his wives, who went to Virginia, was furnished through records of Baltimore County, Maryland, and Bedford and Campbell Counties, Virginia:

II. JARVIS GILBERT, born 10.8.1708. Must have died, as a later son bears this name.

III. SOLOMON GILBERT, born 5.22.1709, married Mary - - .

IV. SAMUEL GILBERT, born , died Oct. 1776, married Martha Webster in Baltimore County, Md. April 26th, 1733 in St. George's Church, and had:

1. Mary, born 3.31.1734, married John Welch and had:

1. Joseph, who married Susannah Harper, widow, 12.18.1785.

2. Robert, who married Mary Horsley 9.3.1794.

3. Andrew, who married Maria Parrott 9.2.1783

4. Margaret, who married John Proffitt 4.29.1785, consent of John Welch, her father

5. William, noted as security for Jesse Wright at his first marriage.

6. Rachel, who married Jesse Wright, widower, 4.6.1784, consent of John Welch, her father. Records in Amherst Co., Virginia.

2. Samuel, born 3.7.1736. We do not know who Samuel married, nor do we have much information concerning him. The Bedford County records show "Samuel Gilbert of Washington County deeds to John Vest land which he inherited from Samuel Gilbert, Sr." The deed for this land is dated Nov. 1, 1781. The Will of Samuel Gilbert, Sr., does not show any bequest to Samuel, Jr., nor have we found any deed to him from his father, but there may have been a deed. The following letter from the U.S. Pension Bureau, shows there was a "Samuel" Gilbert in Washington County in 1833 when he was allowed a pension at the age of 72. This would have made his birth year 1761 and he would have been 15 years of age at the time he enlisted. This could have been a son of Samuel, Jr. Copy of letter follows:

"I have to advise you that from the papers in the Revolutionary War Pension Claim S 8569, it appears that Samuel Gilbert enlisted in Washington County (which was later Russell County) Virginia in May, 1776 and served five months as Indian Spy in Captain James Crabtree's Company, Colonel Arthur Campbell's Virginia Regiment on the south-eastern frontier of Virginia.

He enlisted in 1778 and served six months at Williamsburg, Virginia under Lieutenant Samuel Gilbert (whom he stated was a relative) and Captain John Canefax in the Virginia troops.

He enlisted in June, 1781, served three months as Indian Spy in Capt. James Crabtree's Company, Colonel Arthur Campbell's Virginia Regiment against the Cherokee Indians, destroyed two of their towns, Tellico and Hiawasse, killed and took many of their Indians.

He enlisted and served eight weeks under the above Samuel Gilbert, who was then a Captain, in Colonel Stiff's Virginia Regiment, when news came of the Treaty of Peace and he was discharged.

He was allowed a pension on his application February 19, 1833, while a resident of Lee County, Virginia, aged seventy-two years. No further family data on file.

There is no claim on file on account of the services of Lieutenant or Captain Samuel Gilbert, the history above being that of the only soldier named Samuel Gilbert of Virginia found on the Revolutionary War records of this Bureau".

This is all we know of Samuel, Jr., or probable members of his family, except a record in the Land Office, Richmond, Va., Book 37, p. 160, shows that on 9.10.1767 he was deeded 441 acres, being in the counties of Bedford and Halifax on both sides of Black Water and Maggotty for the sum of 45 shillings. This was signed by Francis Farquier "in the seventh year of our reign (King George) and was part of a land lottery.

3. John Webster Gilbert, born 12.27.1738, died Oct. 1809, married Rebecca - -, and had:

1. James Gilbert, married Martha Gash in Bedford County, Va., Nov. 7, 1782. He and his family lived on land deeded him by his father, located on Brashear's Creek, Spencer County, Ky. (formerly part of Shelby County), where he died.

2. Rachel Gilbert married (1) Daniel McKenney, in Campbell Co, Virginia, in 1788. Her second husband was Edward Eads, to whom she was married in Shelby Co., Ky. June 15th, 1811. There is a record in the County Clerk's Office at Shelbyville which gives the name of John Webster McKinney, in connection with the settlement of John Webster Gilbert's estate. He must have been Rachel's son. We have no further information concerning her, except the family Bible shows she died Nov. 9, 1822.

3. John Wesley Gilbert (called "John" in his father's will) was married twice. His first wife was Eleanor Gilmore, to whom he was married in Lincoln County, Ky., Nov. 14th, 1797. There were two children by this marriage:

1. James Gilmore, born Dec. 8, 1798, died June 12, 1879, married Elizabeth George Stone, who was born 12.29.1810, died 1.12.1876, on 9.5.1832. She was a daughter of George and Anna Cochran Stone, and they had the following children:

 1. Samuel; 2. John C.; 3. George; 4. Rachel. There may have been others, but these are named in court records concerning the settlement of their father's estate, in Shelby County.

In 1827 George Clements received his money from the father's estate, so he must have been 21 in that year. His brother, John, had already received his part of the estate in 1825.

This completes the list of John Webster Gilbert's children and their descendants down to the present generation in so far as we have been able to get the information, and this information was secured from relatives who copied family records, and from court records in Kentucky, Virginia and Maryland. All his children were by his first marriage to Rebecca. He had no children by his second marriage to Mary Masterson Craig on 11.20.1797, in Lincoln County, Ky.

John Webster Gilbert was appointed a Captain by the Bedford County Court on Nov. 22nd, 1779, while living in that County, but prior to this he had served two years in other capacities. After the Revolutionary War Bedford County was divided and Campbell County formed, and the Gilbert lands and home were located in Campbell County. John Webster Gilbert continued to live in Campbell County, and was a Justice of the Peace for that County. In 1794-95, he moved, with all his family, to Kentucky, where he settled on a large tract of land in Lincoln County near Dick's River and on a tributary of that river named "Gilbert's Creek", which name was said to have been given for Thomas Gilbert, first pastor of Buffalo (Va.) Baptist Church, and which name it still bears. John Webster Gilbert had also purchased a large tract of land in Shelby County (later in Spencer Co.) on Brashear's Creek, where he settled "some of his children". James and Rachel, who were both married before they left Virginia, were among those who went to live in Shelby County, and, later, we find Sebert Crutcher and his wife, Sally Gilbert Crutcher, in this same community.

The following records are verification of the foregoing history of the family of John Webster Gilbert:

"This certifies that in a printed volume in the Virginia State Library, known as 'Virginia Militia in the Revolutionary War' by J. T. McAllister, it is stated in a list of 'Officers of the Virginia Line', that John W. Gilbert was sworn into office of Captain by the County Court of Bedford on November 22, 1779. This entry appears in Section 254, page 134". Signed "Bessie Gill", Searcher, Aug. 7, 1926."

Affidavit copied from original in possession of Mrs. James C. Soobee, of Bardstown, Ky.:

"I, James Mahoney, of Shelby County, do hereby Certify that some time in the year 1794 in Virginia being Overseer for John W. Gilbert, had an opportunity of being some little acquainted with a Contract that took place between said Gilbert & Charles Lynch & George May concerning the land. From information from said Gilbert & Charles Lynch & George May in Contract for land in the State of Kentucky entered by George May, John May & Floyd, said Geo. May sold to Chas. Lynch and Jno. W. Gilbert his part of the undivided right of land in Kentucky for which said Gilbert gave up the plantation whereon he lived in Campbell County Virginia at one thousand pounds to Geo. May for which said Lynch & May signed over Fifteen Thousand Acres of said land to said Gilbert in the latter part of 1794 or beginning of 1795. Said May took possession of said plantation & settled his mother there. As well as I recollect said Lynch paid said May two or three valuable plantations & after we came to Kentucky in 1795 in Mercer County said Gilbert & said Lynch myself present I heard said Lynch inform Gilbert to settle on any part of said land & it should be his in the division & said Gilbert made choice of land near the mouth of Brashear's Creek entered in the name of Jno. May & settled his Children there."

DEED BOOK "D" p. 373, Lincoln County Court: 1881-1882

"In the name of God, Amen. I, John Webster Gilbert, now in a low state of health, though in perfect senses, but being old and calling to mind that all die, make and appoint this my last Will and Testament.

"In the first and foremost place, I leave unto my beloved wife, Mary, the plantation the North side of the lane, as it now runs, running from the creek to the upper end of the pasture as it now stands and with the crop fence down to the branch, then up the branch, as it meanders to the back line, with all the improvements on the same except two-thirds of the mill and orchard, which I leave to my two sons, John and Isham Gilbert, for which they must keep the same in repair. I likewise leave her three negroes named Solomon, Sarah and Joseph, also Suke and Len. I likewise leave to my beloved wife two first choice of the beds and furniture, likewise a bed and furniture for each of her sons, John and Samuel Craig. I also leave to my beloved wife all the rest of the household and kitchen furniture and her riding carriage and three of the horses of her own choice and one-third of all other stock. All this I leave her as long as she lives, and at her death the land to go to my son, Isham, as the lines above directed. I also give to her sons, John and Samuel Craig, a horse apiece, each to be worth twenty pounds, also two good cows each, and all moveables to be equally divided among all my children.

It is my desire that at my death Isham Gilbert should come and live with my wife for her help and comfort.

The negroes now in possession of my children, they must hold them and as for James Gilbert and Rachel, my daughter, they have had as much as the negroes given the others.

Now, I leave unto James Gilbert and Rachel, my daughter, an equal part of all stock with the rest of my children, after the two-thirds taken out; and the land to all my children in Shelby as it was laid off for them.

James Clement is to have the land he bargained for with David McKinney and fifty acres more I promised him that was never laid off, for which he is to pay one hundred dollars.

The mill, orchard and distillery to be equally in partnership with my wife, John Gilbert and Isham Gilbert, during her life: After her death, the land on which my wife now lives is to go to Isham Gilbert, but the stills and mill John Gilbert must have his part, and for money and bonds on hand, after my debts are paid, to be equally divided between my wife, my sons, John and Isham and James Gilbert, Sally Crutcher and Patsy Clement.

I leave unto my son, John, the land on the south side of the lane, with the line as heretofore mentioned.

As for the land over the creek, it must be divided between John and Isham as they can agree.

I leave unto John the smith tools and first choice of the negroes, exclusive of the three mentioned for my wife. Isham next choice, then Sally and then Fatsy. I leave Edmund to James Gilbert- the balance of my negroes to be divided amongst my four youngest children, with them my wife holds- after her death.

I also leave to my son, Isham Gilbert, a tract of land containing one hundred and ten acres, which I bought from Pleasant Tucker, which lies joining.

I likewise appoint John Gilbert, Isham Gilbert and Sebert Crutcher my Executors.

Given under my hand and seal this 24th day of November, Anodomy 1807.

Witnesses: Signed: John W. Gilbert.
James Ely
John Garland
Zachariah Tucker.

"N.B. If anything has been neglected that is not in the will, the Executors must take account of it and make sale of the same and divide the money equally amongst John Gilbert, Isham Gilbert, James Gilbert, Sally Crutcher and Fatsy Clement.

I also desire that the crop of tobacco and hemp which is now on hand, should be sold by my Executors, and divided equally between my wife and the five children here named.

At a County Court holden for Lincoln County on Monday the 15th day of October 1809 the last Will and Testament of John W. Gilbert deceased was exhibited into Court, proven by the oaths of James Ely, John Garland and Zachariah Tucker subscribing witnesses thereto and Ordered to be Recorded. And on the Motion of John Gilbert, Isham Gilbert and Sebert Crutcher Executors therein named who made oath and with James Ely, William Logan and Alexander Givens, their sureties executed Bond in the penalty of two thousand pounds with a proper condition Ordered that a certificate of probate of the Will of John W. WILL BOOK S p. 460, Lincoln County, Ky. (Copy of John Webster Gilbert's Will-son of Isham):

I, John W. Gilbert, of the County of Lincoln and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind, but in feeble health, do make, ordain and establish the following to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me ever made.

First, it is my will that my executor hereafter to be named, pay all my just and honorable debts and if the same cannot be paid without the sale of a portion of my property then they are empowered to sell such species of the same as they may deem best to pay off said debts, not selling more than will pay the same.

After the payment of my said debts, it is my will that my wife, Maria Gilbert, have all the remainder of my property, both real, personal and mixed, for and during the term of her natural life, to be by her used and enjoyed with full power to rent the land, hire the slaves, and use the proceeds of the same in the support and education of my children, William Gilbert, Martha A. Gilbert and Mary L. Gilbert. At the death of my said wife, Maria Gilbert, it is my will that my estate, real and personal, be equally divided between my three children, William N. Gilbert, Martha A. Gilbert and Mary L. Gilbert, or the survivor or survivors of them same. In the case of the death of my son, William Gilbert, it is my will that his part be equally divided between my two before mentioned daughters, Martha A. Gilbert and Mary L. Gilbert. In case of the death of either of my two before mentioned children, then the whole of my estate to go to the survivor. Should my daughter, Mary L. Gilbert survive her Mother, brother and sister, and live to the age of maturity, it is my will that she have the whole of my estate of every nature and kind whatsoever to her and her heirs of her body, free from the debts contracts and liabilities of any husband she may ever marry, but if my said daughter, my said son, William and my daughter Martha should depart this life without issue my will is that my entire estate be divided into two equal parts, one half of which I devise to my sister, Mary Whiteside, Samuel C. Gilbert, Isham Gilbert and Harrison Gilbert, share and share alike; and the other half I devise to Mat S. Peyton and Louise Thurmond, wife of William Thurmond.

Lastly, I appoint my brother-in-law, Mat S. Peyton and my neighbor, James Crow, Executors of this my last will and testament, an appointment made in consideration of their known and tried honesty.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Aug. 5th, 1856.

Probated Sept. Ct. 1856.

Signed- John W. Gilbert.

Mrs. J. O. Franklin,
Lawrenceburg, Ky.

Dear Mrs. Franklin:

I received your letter several days ago in regard to the burying ground of William Gilbert but have delayed answering it until I had time to look it up. After making some investigation I located the Gilbert lot on the farm which he owned when he died. The lot is twenty five feet square and has an iron fence around it which is in very good condition. The stones need setting up and repairing and those having inscriptions on them are as follows:

John W., son of Wm. & Mildred Gilbert, Born Oct. 3rd, 1826, Died Dec. 17, 1846 age 21. Stone erect.

Ann Gilbert, wife of Wm. Gilbert, Born May 30, 1794, Died Feb. 8, 1870, age 76 years. Stone down.

Wm. Gilbert, Born May 23, 1801, Died Dec. 16, 1870, age 70 years. Stone broken.

There are six other graves marked only by a rough stone. The farm is located about one mile S.E. of Cox's Creek Church and is now occupied by Bryant Stone.

I hope this information will be of help to you and I also was glad to know about it.

Yours truly,
Ray M. Wright, Supt. of S.S.

The Spencer County records show that William Gilbert and Mildred Tyler were married December 22, 1825, and the Nelson County records show his marriage to Ann Burkhart Dec. 17, 1837.

Signed- Samuel Gilbert (His father).

This Samuel was a son of John Wesley and Betsy Gilbert. The "Mother" referred to was his step-mother. Samuel's first wife was Malvina Crutcher, his first cousin, and the mother of David. James and William Gilbert were sons of John Wesley by his first marriage to Eleanor Gilmore and were half brothers of Samuel.

David Gilbert and his family lived in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, and his residence there is explained by copy of letter which follows. This letter was written by a half brother of David to the Spencer Courier on hearing of the death of David at his home in Oklahoma.

"To the Spencer Courier:

Mr. David N. Gilbert, a former resident of Taylorsville, Ky., died at his home near Salt Fork in Oklahoma, on Monday night, April 24th, 1911. Mr. Gilbert was the oldest son of the late Samuel Gilbert, he was born in Taylorsville and was eighty one years at his death. There are a few of the older citizens of Spencer County who will remember him.

David Gilbert left Kentucky in the year 1851 in company with Wm. Ashby of Shelby County, on horseback going direct to St. Joseph, Missouri. There the young men fitted out a team of three yoke of oxen to a large covered wagon filled with provisions and digging implements and jourined across the great plane, then known as the "Great American Desert" and over the Rocky Mountains to the gold digging region of California. There were thousands of the people at that time going there, many of them to be badly disappointed as to the amount of gold they were to find. Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Ashby remained in California about one year when they left for home. They came back to the State by a sailing vessel on the Pacific Ocean to Panama, where they crossed the isthmus to the Gulf of Mexico, thence by ship to New Orleans. I visited my aged brother last September, at his home in Oklahoma, and in our conversation he gave me a detailed account of that return trip. He told me of how the ship on which they were sailing got into a calm near the Equator some hundreds of miles west of Panama, where it stood still for twenty days, until the food and fresh water was well nigh exhausted, and how the captain of the ship opened the last remaining cask of rice and allowed the passengers to take only what rice they could hold in each hand. This they boiled and subsisted upon until the wind and rain came a few days later, when they sailed safely to shore. He further gave a graphic account of how they climbed up the western slope of the mountains and the isthmus, to the head waters of the Chargres River, and how they descended to the Gulf of Mexico on that rushing river in a canoe, manned and owned by an Indian, for a specific amount.

It is a little remarkable and worth notice, that the river which is to-day one of the best known streams in the world, because of its being in the course and way of the great Panama Canal, should have been navigated and explored sixty years ago by a young man from old Taylorsville.

Mr. Gilbert and Ashby upon arriving at New Orleans, saw a fine, large steam boat in the harbor with its flag flying, and busy loading with sugar and cotton. Upon the banner stretched across the deck in large letters was written "Bound for Louisville, for passage apply on boat". With tears in their eyes they went aboard and felt at once that they had just safely returned to civilization after having been lost for two years. In fact, he said as they stood on the deck of the steam boat labeled "Louisville" and felt that that boat would soon land them in old Kentucky, they could not help but weep when they remembered that they had not the money necessary to pay their passage. So, after sitting in the cabin of the steamer until it was ready to start, they mournfully went ashore again, determined not to return to old Kentucky in poverty, but would try again to make their fortunes. They took passage on a St. Louis boat and went to Missouri where they went to farming, and when Kansas was opened for settlement, they moved to that state, taking up large grants of land, which they successfully worked and raised their families.

David Gilbert did not visit his old home in Kentucky until about twenty years from the time he left it for California. He lived in Kansas until about six years ago, when he moved to Oklahoma to live with his children, who are successful farmers in that rich, young, rapidly growing State. Mr. Wm. Ashby is still living and is in Oklahoma City.

On parting with my brother "Dave" to return home last September he held my hand and with tears in his eyes he said "well, Dick, I wish I could go back to old Kentucky with you, and once more visit old Taylorsville where I spent my happy boyhood. I want to go back and see the creek and river with those old covered bridges and where I fished and swam. I want to see the old mill that our father used to own, and where the farmers came with their corn, and wheat and brought their wool for the carding machines. But fate has ordained otherwise. I feel that the end is near, and that we will never meet again on earth, nor will I ever see that dear old town again. Good-bye".

Signed- R.B.Gilbert

Note: R.B.Gilbert was Dr. Richard B. Gilbert, of Louisville, a son of Samuel by his second wife, Nancy Gill.

5. William Gilbert, born in Baltimore County, Maryland 4.20.1743. We have no information or definite record of this son, but we find a William Gilbert appointed one of the appraisers of Benjamin's estate. There is also a will of a William Gilbert, now in the Archives of Georgia, which mentions his sons, Benjamin, Aquilla, Charles and Preston. Benjamin of the will and William were residents of Hancock County, Ga., at that time, and William's will was on file in Hancock County. Year of Benjamin's will 1791. The Benjamin Gilbert who married Hannah Butler may have been his son.

6. Benjamin Gilbert. We do not have the date of his birth, nor do we know where he was born. He is mentioned in his father's will, copy of which follows. It will be remembered that Gervais also had a son named "Benjamin", and it is not definitely determined to which Benjamin the following record applies, but we are inclined to believe he was the son of Samuel, Sr.

Benjamin Gilbert, Sr., we know was married twice. The first wife was named "Ann", maiden name unknown. This is shown in deeds of record in Campbell County, Va. There were five such deeds, beginning in August and running into December, 1784. Then the tax lists of Wilkes County, Georgia, in 1785, show Benjamin Gilbert, Sr., and Benjamin Gilbert, Jr., and there was also a Thomas Gilbert in this County at this time, and Samuel Gilbert, the son of Jarvis. Samuel's daughter, Betsy, according to the 1850 census of Kentucky, was born in Georgia.

Benjamin, Sr., died in Greene County, Ga. (Now Hancock County), and his will shows that he was, after the death of Ann, married to Elizabeth. He had the following children:

Thus, we have verification of the birth of a son, Benjamin. He does not appear in the Maryland Records and we do not have his birth date, but he must have been born before the family left Maryland.

This ends all the information we have regarding Samuel's family except as shown in records which follow and which also refer to other members of the family of Gervais who went to Virginia.

V. JARVIS GILBERT, son of Gervais and Margaret, born Nov. 8, 1713, married Elizabeth Preston June 10, 1735, and had:

She was married 1777 and was of age, as she did not have to have consent to marry. Samuel was married twice. His first wife we do now know was Rhoda (probably Jane), and by her he had:

Braxton Gilbert, the father, when Marion County Tax Assessor had a leg amputation as a result of being thrown from a run-away horse. He, his wife and children were members of the Providence Baptist Church.

Stephen Gilbert and his family went from Madison County, Ky. to Marion County, Mo., and his farm was seven miles west of Hannibal, Mo. A history of Marion County states he was a teacher in one of the first schools of the County and lists some of his children as his pupils. His youngest daughter, Rhoda Jane, was one of the first white children to be born in Marion County, and his wife, Judith, one of the first deaths, Nov. 1823. After her death, as stated, Stephen went back to Madison County, Ky., and married her sister, Polly Lamb, on April 15, 1827.

This information taken from the Woodson Genealogy. This genealogy uses the name "Brockston", which it is believed should be "Braxton" as the latter is the name given by Stephen Gilbert and some of his descendants to their children. That the "Miss Gilbert" Jesse Woodson is said to have married is Mornin Gilbert, as above shown, is verified by family and court records. On 6.30.1847 Braxton Gilbert, son of Stephen, made application for appointment as administrator of his brother, Hampton's estate and it was signed by Leonard Davis, husband of Kitty Gilbert; Jesse Woodson, Braxton Gilbert, for himself and heirs of his sister, Rhoda Jane Sloan, J.B. COPY OF DEED FROM STEPHEN GILBERT TO WILLIAM OLDHAM:

Signed, sealed & delivered in the presence of Phillip R. Denham.

Signed- Stephen Gilbert
Judith Gilbert

The signature of Judith as above verifies the marriage of Stephen to her prior to his marriage to Polly Lamb, and is the only verification we have, as we have not found the marriage record in Madison County, Ky. As Stephen and his wife were still in Madison County when this deed was made in Feb. 1823, and Judith died in Nov. 1823, she did not live long after moving to Missouri, and probably died giving birth to her last child, Rhoda Jane, who was born in Mo.

Stephen and Judith and some of their children and grand children are buried in the family cemetery on the old Gilbert farm near Hanibal, Mo. Others are buried in the churchyard cemetery of Providence Baptist Church. This completes the information we have regarding Stephen and his family.

The information concerning Patsy Gilbert Kavanaugh and her family is found in the Wallace Genealogy, compiled by George Selden Wallace, on page 88, and it is here that we find the Christian name of the first wife of Samuel Gilbert, Sr., as it is stated she was his daughter by "his first wife, Roda (Rhoda).

Patsy and her family also moved to Missouri, as shown in Pioneer Families of Mo.

Her first marriage joined the families of John Webster Gilbert and Samuel Gilbert, Sr., of Madison County, who were already first cousins. This family is recorded under the name of John Wesley Gilbert. By her second marriage she had four children, then she and Timothy separated. The children were:
1. Mary Burgess, who married a Hutchinson and had:
 1. Richard, who was 5 in 1850 Ky. Census.
 2. Warren J² Burgess, age 32 (1850), a physician
 3. Thos. H. Burgess, age 27 (1850), and
 4. another son whose name we do not have. The 1850 census shows Betsy to have been 65 at that time and birth place Georgia.

This completes the list of Samuel Gilbert's children by his first marriage. Samuel married (2) Susannah Elam in Madison County, Ky., 8.22.1813, and had:

9. Jarvis Elam Gilbert, born 11.21.1814; died June 15, 1883, married Lucinda Yates Jan. 19, 1835. Their children were:

Kavanaugh married Lucy Dudley, daughter of Ambrose Dudley and Susan Gilbert, his wife, so there must have been a first marriage, as it is assumed the Doty marriage was the second, as Lucy evidently died while the children were very young. David Kavanaugh was a brother to Philemon, who married Patsy Gilbert.
 4. Bessie Dudley died unmarried. She taught in Richmond, Ky. schools for many years.

2. John Duncan Gilbert, M.D., born 1832, died July 26, 1891, married Mollie Hampton. Their home was in Clark County, Ky., and their children were:

1. Samuel Hampton Gilbert, born 4.11.1882, died 3.1.1928, married Mary Rodney Haggard, who was born 9.29.1883, died 12.27.1936, and had:

10. Jephtha Rice Gilbert, who married (1) Sara W. Reid 2.20.1836, died 1840; and (2) Julia Ann Yates 5.11.1846.

We have no further information regarding the family of Samuel Gilbert, of Madison County. His name, that of Jenny Gilbert and Susannah Gilbert are on the membership list of Caney Fork Baptist Church on Muddy Creek in Madison County. He died in that County 12.18.1820 and the stones of Samuel and Susannah were found in the family burial ground on the home place on Muddy Creek. It is now thought that the "Jenney" mentioned was his first wife, Rhoda Jane? In the twenty years following his death his widow began buying land willed by him to many of these children, even that of her own son, Jephtha Rice. Evidently many of these older children moved out of Madison County, and, as shown, some of them went to Missouri. Jarvis Elam's descendants are in Winchester and Richmond, Ky., and some of them still own part of the original 1313 acre tract in Madison County. Information given is that some of the Pudley family still live in the old home.

7. Hannah Gilbert, daughter of Jarvis, and sister of Samuel Gilbert, Sr., born as early as 1755, married Alexander Gibbs in Bedford County, Va. 4.3.1777. This may not be her proper place in the family, as we do not have her birth date, but we do know she was the daughter of Jarvis because the county record shows this, and Samuel was her surety.

This completes the family of Jarvis Gilbert as we have it, but the following records will verify the information given:

Court Order Book No. 3, page 761, Bedford County, Virginia, shows "Samuel Gilbert, orphan of Jarvis, came into Court and made choice of Acquilla Gilbert, his guardian, who gave bond and security according to law at a Court held June 26, 1771".

Another item of interest in the Bedford County records is "Ordered that the Church Wardens bind out Preston Gilbert orphan of Jarvis Gilbert, according to law. Found in Order Book Ia page 108, dated May 28, 1759. At this time Preston would have been 16 years of age. We are not told to whom he was bound, but it was probably one of his relatives. We have no information as to where Samuel was between 1759, which was probably the year of his father's death, and 1771, when he chose a guardian.

"This certifies that in a printed volume in the Virginia State Library, known as 'Virginia Militia in the Revolutionary war' by J.T. McAllister, on page 184 Section 254, it is stated, in a list of 'Officers of the Virginia Line' that Samuel Gilbert was recommended for the office of First Lieutenant by the County Court of Bedford on May 29, 1781." Signed- Bessie Gill, Searcher, August 7, 1925.

It will be remembered that he was later made a Captain as shown by copy of letter from the Pension Bureau, already given, regarding a pension for another Samuel Gilbert, of Washington County, Va.

COPY OF SAMUEL GILBERT'S WILL,
Will Book CO 1819-24, Madison Co., Ky.:

In the name of God Amen. I, Samuel Gilbert, of the County of Madison and State of Kentucky, being of advanced age and conscious of the uncertainty of all sublunary affairs, and anxious that no feud may arise in my family after my death, whereby the property accumulated by a life industriously devoted to the interest of my children, may be squandered in litigation, do by this instrument, which I hereby declare to be my last will and testament, make the following disposition of my estate, both real and personal;

In the first place, I desire that my body, after my death, be buried in a manner suited to my station in life according to the custom of the country.

In the second place, I direct all of my just debts be paid and my Executors are hereby informed that those debts, which I hope and believe will be but few, are to be paid out of the funds which may be on hand at my death, or bonds due me, or should both these sources fail or be insufficient, then they are to be discharged out of the other personal estate of which I may die possessed.

In the third place, I give and bequeath to my son, William Gilbert, seventy six acres of land lying on the waters of Muddy Creek, in the County of Madison &c. (here follows a full description of this land, which it is felt is not necessary to be copied, and this holds true for all the other bequests of land.) I also give my before named son, William Gilbert, two negroes named Gabriel and Pompey.

In the fourth place, I give and bequeath to my son, Samuel Gilbert, seventy-six acres of land &c. I also give and bequeath to my before named son, Samuel Gilbert, two negroes named Isaac and Millie, and also release to my said son the payment of two notes due to me from him, the principal and interest of which amounts to $158.50.

In the fifth place, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Amelia Clements, a tract of land containing one hundred and thirty acres, etc. . . I also bequeath to my before named daughter, Amelia Clements, two negroes named Violet and America.

In the sixth place, I give and bequeath unto my son, Stephen Gilbert, a tract of land containing one hundred and thirty acres etc. . . I also bequeath to my son, Stephen Gilbert, two negroes named Suky and China.

In the seventh place, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Nancy Quick, a certain tract of land lying in the aforesaid County of Madison . . . containing one hundred and twenty acres etc. . . I also bequeath to my daughter, Nancy Quick, two negroes named Tilda and Washington.

In the eighth place, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Patsy Kavanaugh, a tract of land containing one hundred and twenty acres lying on the waters of Muddy Creek in the County of Madison etc. . . . I also give and bequeath to my said daughter, Patsy Kavanaugh, two negroes named Prudence and Ambrose Baxter.

In the ninth place, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Sally Oldham, sixty one acres of land lying on the waters of Muddy Creek . . . ~~containing 147 acres etc.~~ . . . I also give and bequeath to my said daughter, Sally Oldham, Carlotta and Humphrey, two negroes so named.

In the tenth place, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Betsy Burgess, a tract of land lying on the waters of Muddy Creek . . . containing 147 acres etc. . . . I also give and bequeath to my daughter, Betsy Burgess, two negroes named Lucy and Adam.

The bequests made in this my last will to my sons, William Gilbert, Samuel Gilbert and Stephen Gilbert, and to my daughters, Amelia Clements, Nancy Quick, Patsy Kavanaugh, Sally Oldham and Betsy Burgess, I hereby give and bequeath to them respectively, and to their heirs forever, and I also confirm to each of my before named sons and daughters all property which I have heretofore given them. And I further direct that none of my before named sons or daughters shall be entitled to claim or receive any other part or portion of my estate than the land, negroes and property before mentioned.

The remainder of my estate, both real and personal, not hereby bequeathed, and all the estate which I may hereafter acquire, or be entitled to at my death, whether the same may consist of lands, negroes, stock or other property, or of debts due from others, I dispose of as follows, that is, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Susannah Gilbert, all the estate of whatever kind it may be of which I die possessed, or which I may be entitled to claim or receive for the following purposes: that is, to support my said wife and for the support and education of my sons, Jarvis Elam Gilbert and Jephtha Rice Gilbert, under the direction of their mother until they shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years; and should both or either of my said sons, after they arrive at the age aforesaid, think proper, or wish a division of my property hereby bequeathed to their mother and themselves, I hereby will and direct that they or either of them shall be entitled to receive one hundred acres each, part of my home tract, or the tract of land on which I now live.

Also two negroes, one good horse, bed and furniture and any such other articles my said wife, Susannah, may direct.

And at the death of my said wife, all the property of every description given by this will to my said wife, to be equally divided between my sons, Jarvis Elam Gilbert and Jephtha Rice Gilbert, share and share alike, except two negroes named Joe and Lucy, which two negroes I give and bequeath to my said wife, Susannah, as her own absolute property, and to be disposed of at her death in such manner as she may think fit.

And should either of my sons, Jarvis Elam Gilbert or Jephtha Rice Gilbert, die before they arrive at the age of twenty-one years, or leave legal heirs, in that case, that part of my estate hereby given to either of them, shall go to the survivor, and should both die without heirs, or either of them, in that case the property hereby bequeathed to them, or either of them, shall belong to my wife, Susannah, for her life, and at her death shall be divided among all my children, or their heirs, share and share alike, according to the interest that their father or mother would have been entitled to, if they had lived.

My will and desire being to dispose of my property in such manner as might prevent all disputes among my children after my death, to effect which and to prevent any litigation among my family, I direct as follows: that should any part of this will appear confused or not so expressed as to be perfectly understood by all those interested therein, my will and desire is that such part may be left to the determination of Humphrey Jones, John Speed Smith and John Patrick, who shall by an examination of my will, have all the power that any court in this Commonwealth shall possess, to decide upon the meaning and intention of this Will and Testament, and the decision of the said Commissioners, or the decision of a majority of them, shall be taken and considered as my last will and testament and fully obligatory upon all my devisees respecting any clause or portion of this will which may be misunderstood.

I also will and direct that should any of my children, after my death, attempt to go to Court for the purpose of disputing or setting aside any clause of this will in opposition to the decision of the aforesaid Humphrey Jones, John Speed Smith and John Patrick, to whom I had left the settlement of all disputes, should any arise, in that case, I hereby declare that any of my devisees who might attempt to dispute the decision aforesaid, shall in that case forfeit all claims to any property I may have given such person, and the estate shall revert to my other children and be divided amongst the whole of them, share and share alike.

I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Susannah, Executrix, and my friend, William Goodloe, Executor, of this my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of September, 1820.

Signed- Samuel Gilbert SEAL

The above and foregoing was signed and acknowledged by the said Samuel Gilbert as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us

A.W. Rollins, John Crooks, James B. Brasfield.

There is a record in Madison County which shows that some of the children did contest this will, claiming that testator was not mentally competent to make a will and that he was unduly influenced by Susannah. We do not know how this suit terminated, but the preponderance of testimony indicated that Samuel was mentally competent.

POWER OF ATTORNEY:

"I, Samuel Gilbert, of Pendleton County and State of South Carolina, do hereby constitute and appoint William Irvine, of Madison County and State of Kentucky my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name to transact all my land business in the said County of Madison, but more particularly to divide and make a deed to Green Clay for his moiety of land located by him in my name in the State of Kentucky, and also to settle all expenses attending the same; hereby ratifying and confirming all things he may lawfully do in my name.

Given under my hand and seal July 7, 1795.

Signed- Samuel Gilbert SEAL

At a Court held for Madison County on Tuesday, July 7, 1795, this Power of Attorney was acknowledged by Samuel Gilbert, a party thereto, to be his act and deed, and ordered to be recorded.

Deed Book C p. 488
(Powers of Attorney)

Teste:
Will Irvine, C.M.C."

Thus we see that Samuel had gone from Georgia to South Carolina to live before he finally went to Kentucky. However, he was in Ky. as early as 1782.

It will be remembered that Acquilla went from Maryland to Bedford County, Va., and that he was a Sgt. in the Bedford Militia in 1758. This completes record of information we have regarding Aquilla Gilbert, son of Gervais and Mary Gilbert, and his family. Verifying information of this relationship is found in Bedford County, Va. records, which shows Aquilla and his sons, as named in his will, furnishing supplies during the Revolutionary War. His age would also be verification of his relationship- he was born 1727, died 1806, age 79.

Records already given show that Sally and Michael moved to Georgia and that Michael was dead in 1805, when his widow and Bird Gilbert, executors of his estate, joined Benjamin Gilbert, Jr. in conveying to Nancy Brown, their sister, one Anaky, a negro woman, and her two children.

REVOLUTIONARY SERVICES FOR GILBERTS: (The following names are taken from the old Court Order Books of Bedford County, Va.)

Nov. 22nd, 1779, Daniel Gilbert qualified as 2nd Lieutenant
 Nov. 22nd, 1779, John W. Gilbert qualified as Captain
 Dec. 28th, 1779, Preston Gilbert qualified as 1st Lieutenant
 May 28th, 1781, Samuel Gilbert qualified as 1st Lieutenant.

Preston and Samuel were sons of Jarvis, deceased, and later Samuel was made Captain, as shown by copy of letter from the Bureau of Pensions.

These records, of course, do not show the names of all the Gilberts who served in the Revolutionary War, as other records show the service of Michael and Benjamin, sons of Benjamin, Sr. who later moved to Georgia and became officers in the Militia of that State, and pension records given show the service of another Benjamin.

The following is the record of another Benjamin Gilbert, who went from Bedford County, Va., and who died in Putnam Co., Ga.:

Parents: Names not given
 Birth: Date and place not given
 Service: He alleged that he enlisted on March 17, 1777 and served 3½ years as Private in Captain George Lambert's Company, Colonel Lewis' Virginia Regiment; was in the battles of Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth and Guilford Pension: Benjamin Gilbert applied for pension in 1823. His claim for pension was not allowed. His widow, Nancy Gilbert, applied for pension in 1846. Her claim for pension was now allowed.
 Family: He married Miss Nancy McKinsey on September 20, 1791, in Greene County, that part which later was Hancock County, Georgia. She was aged 75 years in 1846. She stated in 1846 that her eldest daughter had died in Missouri, date and her name not given. Benjamin and Nancy Gilbert's children, Benjamin and Washington, died prior to March, 1851, dates of their birth not given. Children of Benjamin and Nancy Gilbert living in 1854: Robert R. Gilbert, residing in Bibb County, Georgia; Sophie, wife of Zachariah Roughton, living in Putnam County, Georgia; Aly R. Donnelly, widow of Thomas Donnelly, residing in Mobile, Alabama. In 1854 one Martha H. Gilbert Bowman, aged 65 years, wife of John Bowman, was living in Bibb County, Georgia. No relationship stated. In 1854 one Edmund Gilbert aged 72 years, was residing in Bibb County, Georgia. No relationship stated.
 Residence: In 1777 he lived in Bedford County, Virginia. In 1823 he resided in Putnam County, Georgia.
 Death: October 25, 1830 in Putnam County, Georgia, his age was not given. Nancy Gilbert died March 1, 1851 in Bibb County, Ga.

The following information came from a letter written by Mrs. Wm. (Korene Pendleton) Caldwell, of Bryn Athyn?, Pa., and shows her connection with the above named Benjamin:

"Coleman Pendleton married in 1808 Martha Gilbert, (shown above to have later married John Bowman) born in 1789 Hancock County, Ga., near Powelton, dau. of Benjamin Gilbert and Hannah Butler. Benj. born in Va., died in Putnam Co., Ga., 1819". (This date is shown to be a mistake, as he died in 1830). "Inscription in Bible of Dr. Edmund Monroe Pendleton: 'Benj. Gilbert, father of Martha Gilbert, was born in Va., and died in Putnam Co., Ga. about 1819. He was Capt. in Rev. War and wounded at Monmouth'. (He claims to have been a private).

"Below is an extract from letter from Dr. Edmund's son, James C., then an old man to my uncle Louis Pendleton (5.19.1922) 'Many years ago, before he left Sparta (Ga.) my father visited the old battle ground of Monmouth (N.J.) where both of his grandfathers fought under General Washington, and where Benj. Gilbert was wounded. When he (Dr. Edmund Pendleton) returned home he published in the Sparta (Ga.) Times an account of his Northern trip, and mentioned visiting the old battle ground. Then it was he related that when a small boy his grandfather (Gilbert) used to take him on his knee and tell him about the Rev. War'. My uncle wrote on the letter 'Capt. Benj. Gilbert lost an arm in the Battle of Monmouth'."

This clears up the question of which Benjamin married Hannah Butler, but it does not clear up the question of which Benjamin he was. He was born in Virginia, so must have been a grand son or great nephew of Samuel, Sr. Benjamin, Samuel's son, must have been born in Maryland, as was his half brother, Samuel of the same name.

The above information was in records sent by Mrs. George L. Briggs, of 122 N. Kimball, Casper, Wyoming, a descendant of Stephen Gilbert, son of Samuel of Madison County, Ky., and Mrs. Ida Thomas of Fountain City, Tenn. another of his descendants. From this branch of the family comes the following tradition:

"It seems that the Gilberts owned an estate in England with a title. They migrated to this country- left the estate there and never sold or settled it in any way. It was there that the name "Stephen" came into the family. Sir, Stephen, it is said."

So far as our research is concerned, the name "Stephen" does not appear in the family in this country until it appears in the family of John Webster, of Lincoln County, and Samuel, of Madison County, Ky.

Following is the pension record of one Charles Gilbert, born in Maryland and taken to Virginia as a small child. We do not have his connection with our family, but there must be one, so this record is given here in the hope that he will fit in later on in our research:

In the story of "The Traveling Church" it is stated that Gilbert's Creek, in Lincoln County, Ky., was named for Thomas Gilbert, the first pastor of Buffalo Baptist Church (Va.) though, if he was a member of the expedition (1781), it is not known. This is the story of the removal of an entire congregation, a Baptist Church of Spotsylvania County, Va., under the leadership of Lewis Craig, the pastor, and is very interesting. In the fall of 1783 Craig and many of his congregation moved from this first location to South Elkhorn, about five miles from Lexington, Ky. There is nothing left of the church at Gilbert's Creek except the cemetery. The location of this first church is in what is now Garrard County, which was later taken from Lincoln County.

The information herein given of the Gilbert family was furnished by Mr. William Marye, genealogist, of Baltimore, Maryland, Mrs. Robert W. Phelps (Mary Gilbert), a descendant of Michael Gilbert (1707), of Forest Hill, Maryland; Mr. W.L. Barnes, also a descendant of Michael, of Bel Air, Maryland; Mrs. Wm. F. Rogers, 5608 Stonington Avenue, Howard Park, Baltimore, Maryland, whose son-in-law, Major Poteet, is a descendant of Michael; Mr. Wm. W. Finney, R.D. No. 2, Aberdeen, Maryland; Mr. M.K. Gilbert, Jr., of Miami, Florida; Mrs. J.O. Franklin of Lawrenceburg, Ky., George L. Briggs, of Casper, Wyoming; Mrs. Ida Thomas, of Fountain City, Tenn. Mr. Gilbert Foote, of Glen Ellyn, Ill., and Mary F. Price, of Houston, Texas. Mrs. Franklin is a descendant of John Webster Gilbert, of Lincoln County, Ky., and Samuel Gilbert, of Madison County, through the marriage of John Wesley Gilbert and Betsy Gilbert, daughter of Samuel; Mrs. Geo. L. Briggs is a descendant of Samuel, as is Mrs. Ida Thomas; M.K. Gilbert is a descendant of Benjamin Gilbert; Gilbert Foote is a descendant of John Webster Gilbert, as is Mary F. Price.

Mrs. Phelps states that her grandmother, Elizabeth Gilbert, born 1811, died 1907, had a fine memory and an interest in family history. She told Mrs. Phelps that the first of our line in America was "Charles", but she had no further information about him, except that he was the father of Gervais. There is a tradition in her branch of the family that our ancestor was a cousin of Sir Humphrey Gilbert. Sir Humphrey was lost in a ship wreck in 1583, and at the time he was married and had a large family, so there must have been one or two generations between the time of his death and the birth of Charles. Gervais was married and had his first child in 1707, so, unless there were other children born earlier, of whom there is no record, he was married about 1705. We do not know how old he was when he married, but he was probably born between 1680-1685, nearly a century after the death of Sir Humphrey.

Burke's Landed Gentry of England (1939) gives Otho Gilbert (Sir Humphrey's father) of Compton, an only son of Thomas Gilbert of the 8th generation. This Thomas was a second son, and was a brother of Sir John Gilbert, who died without issue, and thus Otho inherited from him. The only way our ancestor could have been a cousin, would have been through one of the four brothers of Sir John (uncles of Otho) viz.: 1. Otho; 2. William; 3. Geoffry; 4. Richard, who was canon of Essex. We do not have the names of the descendants of either of these brothers, but one of their children would have been a first cousin of Sir. Humphrey, and it may be that our ancestor was among these children. We have been unable to find a Charles Gilbert among the early settlers of Maryland or Virginia.

Another tradition given by Mrs. Phelps is: "It has been said that three Gilbert brothers came over from England- one went North, one went South, and the third settled in Maryland. From these three all the Gilberts in the United States are descended".- John Gilbert Selby's record.

Mrs. Phelps stated that there was a place called Gilbert Town from which the Gilberts scattered, located between Churchville and Havre de Grace, Maryland, between Aldino and Carsins Rin, in Harford County. She also stated that her information of the Gilbert family is that they came from Normandy to England with William the Conqueror in 1066. Then she calls attention to the various ways of spelling the name. It came from the Saxon "Gele" (yellow) and "Bert" (bright) and means "gold like", or from the German "Gisle" meaning bright pledge. Gilbert de Gaunt and Richard FitzGilbert, a kinsman of the Conqueror, are two of the name who went over with William in 1066 and Richard became the first Earl of Clare. The early and principal home of the Gilberts was in Devonshire, England, where they possessed lands in Manston, in or near Dartmoor, during the reign of Edward the Confessor (1272). They have married into the Compton, Champernown and Valletort families, thereby uniting with royal blood.

Here is a note copied from a letter from Wilmer L. Barnes, of Bal Air, Md.: "Michael, son of Jarvis (Gervais) is the first recorded elder of the Churchville Presbyterian Church. Richard Barnes, Sr., was also an elder there a little later, and he married Sarah Gilbert Dec. 19, 1782. She died Feb. 13, 1811, and is buried in Bay View Cemetery, otherwise known as 'Coen's Hill' overlooking the Susquehanna River above Havre de Grace." Mrs. Phelps also says that her ancestor, Micah Gilbert, son of Michael and Sarah Preston, was born in South Wiltshire, near Manchester, about twenty miles from Bath, England. She does not give the source of this information, but as Michael, his father, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1707, he and his wife must have gone to England for some reason. It has been found, on consulting a map, that the above statement could not be correct, for Wiltshire and Manchester are in entirely different parts of England. However, Wiltshire adjoins the County where Bath is located, and the County Seat, Salisbury, is not very far distant from Bath.

Micah Gilbert was in the Revolutionary War and his blunderbuss and sword were held in the hands of relatives whom she remembered well. "His uniform was in the loft of the old house for many years and is supposed to have been stolen from there by Negroes. He wore a gray fur hat, knee pants with buckles, and a swallow tailed coat". His uniform was something like that worn by Washington." This information, Mrs. Phelps says, was given first hand from her great aunt and a cousin.

She also stated that "before the church at Churchville was built, Michael Gilbert, with other young men, would walk to the river, ferry across in a boat, then walk 18 or 20 miles to a church in what is now Cecil County, Maryland." Mr. Barnes says "Micah when a young man, according to the Rev. Wm. Finney, became joint owner of a boat with some other young men, including Richard Barnes, which they hooked to a tree above Lapidan and on Sunday mornings, after having ridden or walked two or three miles, no doubt from the Barnes home, they rowed across the river, went on to Nottingham (Cecil Co.) to church. Whether it was Michael or his son, Micah, it makes an interesting story.

Mr. Wm. W. Finney, of Aberdeen, Maryland, beside giving the same family information as that already mentioned, gave the following quotation from Rev. William Finney's "Historical Sermon of January 1, 1854":

"Being over four score years of age (I mean Micah Gilbert) he was a Christian disciple of the olden time, distinguished by a spirit of devotion, a beautiful simplicity of character and the closeness of his walk with God. With a wife in every way his equal, he walked hand in hand through a long and peaceful pilgrimage".

Further quotations from Mrs. Phelps' letters- "There is a small family graveyard walled in on what was my great uncle's farm across the road from the old house where the uniform etc. were seen by Uncle George's widow and a cousin who made the recording about the blunderbuss and uniform. I have been there often and studied the markers, but none seem to be before the time of Amos and Sarah Bailey Gilbert".

In Judge Preston's History of Harford County, there are a number of references to the Gilberts of an early day. He mentions Michael Gilbert as Elder of the Churchville Church, Micah and wife, Mary, as living to be over 80 years of age, one dying in 1823, the other in 1827; Jonas Gilbert, a member of Capt. Wm. Webb's Company #16, organized Oct. 14, 1775; Michael Gilbert on the Grand Jury of Circuit Court in Harford Town 28th March, 1780, and on the petit jury Aug. 1791; Micah Gilbert, overseer of road; Susquehanna Hundred, northern and eastern limits; Michael Gilbert, Jr., 12 Sept. 1775 a member of Josias Carvil Hall's Company #1; Samuel Gilbert a member of Charles Anderson's Co., #3; Michael Gilbert 2nd Lieutenant 1773-1783".

"There is a tombstone standing in Churchville Cemetery marked "Aquila Gilbert b. 20 Nov. 1709 d. Mar. 1731, aged 22 years".

The Gilbert home in Maryland was in St. George's Parish, and this Parish was bounded on the east and south by the Susquehanna River. The Bush River and its headwaters served as the western boundary. The northern line of the Province was its northern limit.

The first church in this part of the Province was called "Spesutia Church" and was built in 1671. The present church is now called "St. George's" and is near the village of Perryman, Harford County, Md.

Present St. George's was built in 1851 at Perryman and is the third church on this spot, and the fourth one of the parish. The first church was built on "Walston's Addition near Delf Creek in what is now Harford County".

Our ancestor, Gervais (Jarvis) Gilbert, was a vestrymen 1724-25.

A recent letter from Mr. Barnes announced that an article appeared in a local newspaper recently which stated that "Mr. & Mrs. Bertram Wright, of Shawsville, this county, are the proud possessors of the old Gilbert family Bible dating back to 1768. This Bible is said to contain complete family records up to the arrival of their latest grand child". (1947)

Communication with Mrs. Bertram Wright disclosed that she was a descendant of Phillip Gilbert, a son of Michael, and the information she gave, which was meagre, is given in its proper place under Michael's family. It appears that this Bible started out to be that of a family whose daughter married into the Gilbert family.

We are now making an effort to trace our family in England, through the information regarding the birth of Micah in South Wiltshire, but, at present, we have given all the information we have been able to gather regarding the Gilbert family.
